

Distribution—Recurring Payments

Use this form to set up automatic, recurring distributions from your 401(a), 401(k), 403(b) or 457(b) governmental employer plan. Fill in by hand using CAPITAL letters and black ink, or on screen (if PDF). If you need more room for information, use a copy of the relevant page.

Helpful To Know

- You can only take a distribution if you meet one of the criteria for eligibility (see Section 3).
- Workplace retirement plan distributions may have tax consequences. You may want to consult a tax or financial professional.
- Recurring payments that continue for 10 years or longer are not eligible for roll over to an IRA or to other retirement plans.
- To set up recurring distributions for more than one retirement plan, use a separate form for each plan.
- To get your plan number(s), call your plan sponsor (the employer that provides the plan) or go to mysavingsatwork.com.
- To validate your profile, go to netbenefits.com/profile. To change your address, call your plan sponsor or go to netbenefits.com/profile.
- For most other types of distributions (such as hardship or rollover) find the appropriate forms at fidelity.com/atwork.
- Non-resident aliens must provide IRS form W-8BEN and a U.S. taxpayer ID number to claim any tax treaty benefits.
- Before you submit this form, be sure to find out whether your plan requires plan sponsor approval of distribution requests. If your plan does, and there is no plan sponsor signature in Section 10, your request will be denied.

- If you fail to provide a valid federal withholding election form, or the form is not completed, or you make a request for less than 20% to be withheld on an eligible rollover distribution the following default federal withholding will apply:
 - Eligible rollover distributions: 20%
 - Ineligible rollover nonperiodic distributions: 10%
 - Ineligible rollover periodic distributions: Based on your tax status being single.
- US Citizens and Resident Aliens If you have an address outside of the 50 United States or the District of Columbia, you cannot elect out of federal tax withholding. You must provide IRS Form W-9 prior to receiving a distribution from the plan to avoid being treated as a non-resident alien for tax purposes. The form can be found at www.irs.gov or <https://www.irs.gov/forms-pubs/about-form-w-9>. Please upload the Form W-9 with your Return of Excess Deferrals Form.
- Non-Resident Aliens If you are not a U.S. citizen or resident alien (that is, you are a non-resident alien), the minimum federal mandatory withholding rate of 30% will apply unless you provide IRS Form W-8BEN and the prevailing tax treaty rate applies to the country of residence indicated on the form. Failure to provide the proper form can result in unexpected tax withholding and reporting. The form can be found at www.irs.gov or <https://www.irs.gov/forms-pubs/about-form-w-8-ben>. Please upload the proper form with your Return of Excess Deferrals Form.
- If you are a U.S. person and your recurring payments will be completed within 10 years, we will withhold federal taxes at the rate of 20% for payments that are not directly rolled over to an eligible retirement plan or IRA, unless you indicate a higher withholding rate below.
- Each state sets its own withholding rates and requirements on taxable distributions. We apply these rates unless you, or state law, direct otherwise.
- Note that the amount of tax withheld will be calculated on, and subtracted from, the amount of your distribution. Amounts withheld may be less or more than what you actually owe in taxes. The withholding instructions you provide here will remain in effect for this account until you give us new instructions.
