

Brandeis University Defined Contribution Retirement Plan for Faculty, Professional, and Administrative Employees

Notice of Qualified Default Investment Alternative

You are receiving this notice as a result of your Plan transitioning to Fidelity Investments. Under the Plan, any contributions for which you do not provide investment direction will be invested in the Plan’s designated default investment option. Please refer to your Transition Guide for detailed information on all of your Plan’s investment options, and details regarding the transition to Fidelity Investments.

You have the right under the Plan to direct the investment of your existing balances, which includes contributions and any earnings on those contributions, and your future contributions to any of the Plan’s available investment options. In the event that you have not made an investment election, or the Plan Sponsor has not provided direction for a given contribution, it will be invested into the Plan’s designated default investment option, Vanguard Target Retirement Fund. If your contributions are initially invested in the designated default investment option, you have the right to transfer out of the designated default investment option to another investment option.

Eligible participants who do not enroll themselves in the Plan are automatically enrolled, unless they elect not to participate pursuant to the Plan’s “opt-out process”. If you are automatically enrolled, before-tax contributions are made on your behalf to the Plan at a rate of 5% of each type of eligible compensation, and have been, or will be invested in the Plan designated default investment option. You have the right to change your contribution percentage, as well as elect to discontinue contributions to the Plan altogether.

To obtain information about other plan investment options, please log onto NetBenefits® at www.netbenefits.com/brandeis or call 800-343-0860 to speak to a representative. You may also make changes to your investment elections for future contributions and/or exchange all or a portion of your existing balance into other options available under the Plan via NetBenefits or by phone. We encourage you to review your investment mix and deferral percentage and update as appropriate.

The Vanguard Target Retirement Fund used as the Plan designated default investment option are based on the assumption that the participant will retire at age 65. Please use the chart below, decided by your plan sponsor, to determine in which Vanguard Target Retirement Fund your future contributions will be directed, based on your date of birth at Fidelity Investments.

Vanguard Target Retirement 2020 Fund

Ticker: VTWNX

Gross expense ratio: 0.08% as of 01/31/2022

Objective: The investment seeks to provide capital appreciation and current income consistent with its current asset allocation.

Strategy: The fund invests in a mix of Vanguard mutual funds according to an asset allocation strategy designed for investors planning to retire and leave the workforce in or within a few years of 2020 (the target year). The fund's asset allocation will become more conservative over time, meaning that the percentage of assets allocated to stocks will decrease while the percentage of assets allocated to bonds and other fixed income investments will increase.

Risk: The target date funds are designed for investors expecting to retire around the year indicated in each fund's name. The funds are managed to gradually become more conservative over time as they approach their target date. The investment risk of each target date fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. They are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, and foreign securities. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after their target dates. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term redemption fee: None

Who may want to invest: Someone who is seeking an investment option intended for people in or very near retirement and who is willing to accept the volatility of diversified investments in the market; Someone who is seeking a diversified mix of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments in one investment option or who does not feel comfortable making asset allocation choices over time.

Vanguard Target Retirement Income Fund

Ticker: VTINX

Gross expense ratio: 0.08% as of 01/31/2022

Objective: The investment seeks to provide current income and some capital appreciation.

Strategy: The fund invests in a mix of Vanguard mutual funds according to an asset allocation strategy designed for investors currently in retirement. Its indirect bond holdings are a diversified mix of short-, intermediate-, and long-term U.S. government, U.S. agency, and investment-grade U.S. corporate bonds; inflation-protected public obligations issued by the U.S. Treasury; mortgage-backed and asset-backed securities; and government, agency, corporate, and securitized investment-grade foreign bonds issued in currencies other than the U.S. dollar.

Risk: The fund is subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments. Fixed income investments carry issuer default and credit risk, inflation risk, and interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after retirement. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term redemption fee: None

Who may want to invest: Someone who is seeking an investment option intended for people in retirement and who is willing to accept the volatility of diversified investments in the market; Someone who is seeking a diversified mix of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments in one investment option and looking primarily for the potential for income and, secondarily, for share-price appreciation.

This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.

Before investing in any mutual fund, consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses.

Contact Fidelity for a prospectus or, if available, a summary prospectus containing this information. Read it carefully.

In the event of a discrepancy between this notice and the terms of the Plan, the plan document will govern.

For a mutual fund, the expense ratio is the total annual fund or class operating expenses (before waivers or reimbursements) paid by the fund and stated as a percentage of the fund's total net assets. Expense ratios change periodically and are drawn from the fund's prospectus. For more detailed fee information, see the fund prospectus or annual or semiannual reports.
