

Your local Voya Plan Representatives* are here to help with questions regarding the transition or to provide a review of your account. Please refer to the contact information listed below; each representative can be reached by phone or email. You can also schedule a Zoom meeting with them directly through their Online Schedule links listed below their names. During this time of continued social distancing, we encourage phone or Zoom meetings but also may be able to accommodate limited in-person meetings on a limited basis. Please contact your advisor to discuss your situation and their availability.
